THOMAS C. ELLIOTT
Unanimous Choice of Delegates of Twenty-ninth Senatorial District—National Party and State Ticket Heartily Endorsed.

Shortly before 12 o'clock Friday, Charles O. Thompson of Pomfret, the chairman of the Twenty-ninth district senatorial republican committee, called the convention for the district to order in the town hall here. Organization was effected by the election of Hon. Fayette L. Wright of Pomfret, chairman, and Harold S. Maine, who was proxy for his father, ex-Secretary William F. Maine of Windham, as clerk.

The call was read and the chairman appointed these committees: Credentials, Charles H. Blake of Brooklyn, A. L. Mills of Hampton and A. A. Stanton of Sterling, who held Alfred Gallagher's proxy; resolutions, Charles H. Perkins of Windham, M. C. Gallagher of Plainfield and Gerald Waldo of Scotland.

The first committee made its report showing the following delegates present: Brooklyn—Charles H. Blake, E. C. Babson. Canterbury—George Barstow, Clinton Frink, James Towne, Fred Hickey. Plainfield—E. M. Case, Moses Brantley, E. C. Gallagher, Herman Chapman. Pomfret—A. G. Williams, Charles O. Thompson, Walter Hayden, F. L. Wright. Scotland—Gerald Waldo, John Chesbro. Sterling—A. A. Stanton, proxy for Alfred Gallagher, E. B. Harvey. Windham—H. S. Maine, proxy for W. F. Maine, Charles H. Perkins, Clarence E. Chamberlain, Elmer M. Young.

Nominations were called for. Judge Thompson of Pomfret obtained the floor and in a few forcible remarks presented the name of Thomas O. Elliott of Pomfret to the convention as a candidate for the senatorship from the Twenty-ninth district. The nomination was immediately seconded and as there were no other names offered it was voted that the nomination be made by acclamation and the result showed a unanimous choice of Mr. Elliott.

The chair appointed Judge Charles O. Thompson of Pomfret, Gerald Waldo of Scotland and Avery A. Stanton of Sterling to wait upon the successful nominee and present him to the convention. The committee did so and the chairman introduced him to the convention and Mr. Elliott said: "I assure you that I appreciate the honor you have conferred upon me, for it is an honor for any man to be nominated for the office of senator, and I also assure you that I am elected that I will do what I can for the county and the state. Mr. Elliott then extended an invitation to the delegates, the representatives of the press and a few friends to dine with him at the Hotel Hooker. He was given a hearty round of applause.

The convention re-elected the district committee as follows: Charles O. Thompson of Pomfret, Frank L. Tillinghast of Plainfield and William A. Arnold of Windham.

The committee on resolutions offered a resolution whereby the delegates of the Twenty-ninth senatorial district renewed allegiance to the principles of the republican party and heartily endorsed the state ticket and also commended to the voters of the district the nominee who was so heartily nominated as senator from the district Friday.

Adjournment was taken at 12:15 o'clock.

men, including the delegates, friends of the senator-to-be, and representatives of the press, sat down to an excellent dinner in the main dining room of the Hotel Hooker. As the company was entering the hall Helmsold's orchestra played popular selections in the private dining room. The tables in the main dining room were decorated with flowers and beside each plate was a carnation.

Most of the delegates left on the middle afternoon trains for their respective homes.

Closed Until Monday.

The American Thread company's local plant—the manufacturing department—shut down Thursday evening until Monday morning. Commencing Monday morning the manufacturing department will run but four days a week and the finishing department five days. As far as could be learned Friday it is reported that the short time will not last long. It is said that the cause is the present unsettled condition of the cotton market. Commencing October 1, the annual quarterly stock taking of the inventory of the plant will be made.

IN NEW HEBREW CEMETERY.

Samuel Bycel First to Be Buried in Freshly Consecrated Ground.

Samuel Bycel, one of the best known Hebrews of the city, died early Friday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, following two days' illness of hemorrhage of the stomach. Mr. Bycel had been suffering with cirrhosis of the liver for the past six months. Early Wednesday morning he was taken ill at his home, 555 Ash street, having several hemorrhages and he was taken to the hospital, where he remained in a state of semi-coma until he died.

He was a native of Russia, born June 2, 1874. He emigrated to this country several years ago and for the past seven years has been a resident of this city and Mansfield. He had followed the vocation of a battle and stock buyer and was well known around this immediate neighborhood, as well as New London and Tolland counties. He enjoyed the confidence of his large number of customers and all the people with whom he did business.

He was a charter member of Louis Feiner lodge, No. 150 Independent Order Aehvas Israel, and a member of the Congregation Sons of Israel. There survive a widow and six small children, the eldest of which is eleven. The children are all girls.

Arrangements for the funeral and burial were made by a committee from Louis Feiner lodge, Rabbi H. Hoffenberg of Hartford and Rabbi Max Levine of this city came to the newly purchased plot of ground for the Hebrew cemetery in Mansfield and consecrated it. The funeral was held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home, 555 Ash street.

Members of societies with which deceased was affiliated marched in procession from the house to the city line, where carriage conveyed them to the new cemetery. The bearers were Louis Feiner, Joseph Feiner, Samuel Feiner, Hyman Israel, Wolf Rosen and A. Gluskin, all members of Louis Feiner lodge. Mr. Bycel was the first one to be buried in the new Hebrew cemetery.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. Lucy C. Hoyt.
The funeral of Mrs. Lucy C. Hoyt was held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from her home in Windham. Rev. Harry E. Grimes, pastor of the Windham Center Congregational church, officiating. Friends were bearers. Burial was in the Windham Center cemetery. Funeral Directors Elmore & Shepard of this city were in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Maria A. Jilison.
The funeral of Mrs. Maria A. Jilison was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her home on Pleasant street. Rev. W. S. Beards, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating. The officiating clergyman, during the service hymns were sung by the Congregational church quartette. There was a profusion of floral tributes from relatives and sorrowing friends. The bearers were Frederick C. Moulton, Henderson S. Moulton, John E. Brick and Charles H. Thompson. Burial was in the Willimantic cemetery. Funeral Directors Elmore & Shepard were in charge of the arrangements.

Sues Hartford Contractor.
Charles E. Leonard of this city has instituted a suit for $400 damages against A. J. Langfeld of Hartford, the contractor who did the Main street paving job. Now in the case were served by Constable W. J. Hastings. The case is returnable before the superior court on the first Tuesday in October next. Mr. Leonard claims that the plaintiff by request of the defendant, from June 1 to September 27, rendered services to the defendant furnishing him ten feet, together with sand and stone and other materials to the value of $200 which the defendant agreed to pay but has since refused to do so. Note of the suit was served upon the city and Mr. Langfeld in Hartford. Attorney George W. Melony will appear for Mr. Langfeld in this matter.

State of New York Admits Wardship.
The selection of the town of Windham were notified Friday by the controller of the state of Connecticut that the state of New York has admitted the wardship of Ethel May Parker, the two years old daughter of Sybil Archer Parker, the negro who was recently sentenced to state prison from the superior court for Windham county that was held in Putnam. The Parker woman was the one who was charged with the murder of her infant child while in the employ of George H. Patenaude of Pleasant street. This child, late last fall. The child, which was born to her previously, will be taken to New York today (Saturday) and turned over to the authorities there.

Church Supper.
Friday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church on Church street a peach shortcake supper with all the other good things that go to make up an appetizing evening repast was served in the vestry to a large number of people. The affair was given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the church and a tidy sum was netted to assist the society in its many activities in connection with church work.

Audience Liked Madame X.
Madame X was the attraction at Looper's Friday evening and played to a very large audience. The audience thoroughly appreciating the entire production, which was one of the best that has been seen by a local audience in a number of years. The scenery and costumes were very fine and materially added to the effectiveness of the exceptional piece.

Personals.
Mrs. Elmer H. Young spent the day in Putnam with friends Friday.

Miss Abba Blanchette left Friday for a visit with friends in Boston. Grosvenor Ely and party in a large touring car were in the city Friday. Senator and Mrs. W. C. Burnham of Hampton were Willimantic visitors on Friday.
